About 1:1 Coaching

WOMEN'S BRAIN TRUST

ABOUT COACHING

What is 1:1 Coaching?

We believe our clients are whole, wise, and deeply knowledgeable about their own growth. Our coaching process is built to draw out that wisdom through inquiry, curiosity, and compassionate challenge, empowering clients to stretch into their fullest potential.

What to Expect

- ✓ Partnership - A confidential, trusting, and professional 1:1 coaching relationship.
- ✓ Personalized Goal-Setting - A collaborative process where you set the focus and goals.
- ✓ Safe Space to Practice - A safe space to practice handling real-world situations and relationships.
- ✓ EQ Development - Growth in emotional intelligence, self-awareness, and leadership skills.

Structure

- Each session is 60 minutes. Walking sessions are encouraged as an option.
- Goals are set at the outset, revisited along the way, and assessed at the close of each cycle.
- Clients typically engage in 8–10 sessions over 4 months; this proposal begins with a 6-session initial cycle.

IMPACT OF COACHING

Leadership coaching accelerates self-awareness, strengthens emotional intelligence, and equips leaders to navigate complexity with impact and resilience.

Coaching Develops:

- ✓ Sharper Decision-Making - Gain clarity and confidence to navigate complex challenges.
- ✓ Resilience + Adaptability - Manage stress, uncertainty, and change with greater ease.
- ✓ Enhanced Emotional Intelligence - Build self-awareness, empathy, and interpersonal effectiveness.
- ✓ Personalized Growth - Uniquely tailored strategies to lead effectively in your context.

International Coaching Federation (ICF) Research Highlights

80% of people who receive coaching report increased self-confidence.

70% of leaders improve their work performance, communication, and relationships.

86% of companies and organizations report a positive ROI on coaching.

HOW WE'LL WORK TOGETHER

I am available to begin this engagement as soon as you are ready. Here are the key details:

- We will engage in {#} x 60-minute coaching sessions as an initial cycle.
- Sessions are scheduled at regular intervals, ideally bi-weekly or weekly if helpful and schedules allow.
- At the close of the initial cycle, you may choose to continue with an additional cycle or one-off sessions.
- Between sessions, I am available for brief check-ins or support via email or text message as needed.

OUR APPROACH TO COACHING

At Women's Brain Trust (WBT), we coach mission-driven leaders to navigate the emotional journey of leadership. We believe you are whole, wise, and highly knowledgeable about your own development. We aim to draw out your wisdom through inquiry, curiosity, genuine compassion, and gentle challenge — helping you stretch into your best and fullest capacity.

Our responsibility is to discover, clarify, and align with what you want to achieve. Everyone's coaching journey is unique; the process is entirely your own. You can expect:

- ✓ A confidential, professional relationship that motivates, inspires confidence, and encourages action.
- ✓ A collaborative process, with the decision about what to work on remaining entirely with you.
- ✓ An opportunity to reflect, gain perspective, and integrate your learning.
- ✓ A safe space to practice handling real challenges and relationships.

DISCOVERY PROCESS + MEASURING SUCCESS

We begin with a structured intake process to ensure our work together is grounded in your specific context, goals, and organizational dynamics.

Intake & Onboarding

- A pre-engagement intake conversation (30 minutes) to explore your goals, leadership context, and priorities.
- An optional alignment conversation with a relevant stakeholder (HR, manager, or sponsor) if desired; please note that all content shared during coaching remains confidential to you.

Measuring Progress

- Goal review at the midpoint of our engagement to assess progress and adjust direction.
- A closing reflection session at the end of the cycle to assess outcomes and identify next steps.
- Optional: 360-degree feedback facilitation or leadership self-assessment to support goal-setting.

CONFIDENTIALITY + ETHICS

One of the foundational commitments of coaching is confidentiality. What you share in the course of our work stays between us. I commit to keeping all information strictly confidential, except as required by law. Any exceptions will be made only with your expressed written permission.

As a credentialed Professional Certified Coach (PCC) and member of the International Coaching Federation (ICF), I pledge to comply fully with the ICF Code of Ethics.

{If company engaged} Reporting to {Company Name}: I maintain strict confidentiality with you as my client. If {Company Name} has designated a sponsor or HR point of contact, I am happy to provide a brief, high-level status update (e.g., that sessions are underway and progressing well), but no content of our sessions will be shared without your explicit written approval.

About Us

WOMEN'S BRAIN TRUST

ABOUT US

WBT is a collaboration between Jenna Shapiro and Stacy Berger. We've worked as leaders in presidential campaigns, across all levels of school systems, at the senior leadership level of action-driven organizations including Planned Parenthood Federation of America, and alongside individuals and teams from the New York City Department of Education to Fair Fight in Georgia. We are passionate about doing work we love alongside people we respect. We partner with movement, government, and non-profit leaders - including at the DNC, Empower, and Emily's List - because we understand their unique challenges. Like them, we believe in the possibility of redesigning our social systems to interrupt inequity and build toward a more just future.

WOMEN'S BRAIN TRUST

MEET JENNA

Jenna Shapiro (she/her), MST/MEd, is an ICF Professional Certified Coach with a deep commitment to helping leaders in the public and social sectors navigate complex challenges, strengthen team dynamics, and lead with love and humanity. With a background in education and adult learning, Jenna has spent over two decades designing and facilitating transformative experiences — from launching a public charter school to leading large-scale system change initiatives with school districts and nonprofits across the country.

She specializes in leadership coaching, team retreats, and organizational culture work, with a particular focus on facilitating candid, equity-centered conversations. A faculty member at Teleos Leadership Institute, Jenna co-leads a coaching program for education leaders from across the country and serves on the faculty team for the Teleos Coach Development Program alongside her mentors. She holds degrees from Syracuse, Pace, and Harvard, and lives in Brooklyn with her family.

MEET STACY

Stacy Berger (she/her) is an ICF Professional Certified Coach and seasoned leadership consultant with over two decades of experience in advocacy, campaign strategy, and organizational development. A former community organizer who cut her teeth as a Field Organizer on the John Kerry campaign in 2004, she has led national and grassroots efforts across the nonprofit and political sectors. Stacy served as the Deputy National Training Director and the GOTV Director at Obama for America, followed by eight years at Planned Parenthood Federation of America where she directed coaching, facilitation, and employee engagement initiatives.

Stacy specializes in leadership development, strategic planning, facilitation, and partner engagement, with a focus on supporting nonprofit and campaign leaders. Her work has taken her from local classrooms to international training rooms, including sessions with Egyptian political leaders and US-based organizations including Moms Demand Action and CHAMP. She holds a BA in Urban Studies and Planning from UC San Diego and lives in Denver with her family.

Thank you!
